

Name _____

Antibiotics: The Right Prescription for the Right Infection

Short Answer Key

1. Antibiotics are most commonly used to treat bacterial infections.
2. Antibiotics might be necessary for people with certain medical conditions to prevent or treat bacterial infections.
3. Antibiotics should be prescribed by healthcare providers.
4. Responsible antibiotic use includes taking antibiotics as prescribed and not sharing them with others.
5. No, antibiotics are not effective against viral infections.

