

Name _____

The Second Amendment and Your Right to Bear Arms

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does the Second Amendment reference as "necessary to the security of a free State"?
 - a) A standing army
 - b) A well-regulated militia
 - c) A strong government
 - d) An independent judiciary

2. What is the primary debate concerning the Second Amendment?
 - a) Whether it guarantees the right to free speech
 - b) Whether it focuses on the collective right of states or the individual right to own firearms
 - c) Whether it pertains to the right to a fair trial
 - d) Whether it establishes the right to vote

3. How has the Supreme Court interpreted the Second Amendment?
 - a) It has consistently ruled against the individual's right to bear arms.
 - b) It has consistently ruled in favor of the collective right of states to maintain militias.
 - c) It has affirmed the individual's right to own firearms for self-defense.
 - d) It has never addressed the Second Amendment.

4. What is the significance of the phrase "shall not be infringed" in the Second Amendment?
 - a) It means that the government can impose any restrictions on gun ownership.
 - b) It means that individuals can own any type of firearm without restrictions.
 - c) It means that the government should not interfere with the right to own and carry firearms.
 - d) It means that only members of the militia have the right to bear arms.

5. Who has the authority to enact laws related to gun ownership and regulation?
 - a) Only the federal government
 - b) Only state governments
 - c) Only local governments
 - d) Federal, state, and local governments

