

Name _____

Risk: A Global Battle of Strategy and Conquest

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main objective of the game Risk?
 - a) To control the most territories
 - b) To accumulate the most mission cards
 - c) To achieve global supremacy and eliminate opponents
 - d) To build the largest army

2. What happens during the Reinforcement Phase in Risk?
 - a) Players exchange mission cards
 - b) Players launch attacks on enemy territories
 - c) Players receive reinforcements based on their controlled territories
 - d) Players fortify their positions with additional armies

3. Who originally created the board game Risk?
 - a) Albert Einstein
 - b) Albert Lamorisse
 - c) Albert Schweitzer
 - d) Albert Brooks

4. How does Risk end?
 - a) When all players have collected all the mission cards
 - b) When a player successfully completes their secret mission card or eliminates all opponents
 - c) When a player controls all the territories on the board
 - d) When a player captures a specific territory designated as the "Victory Territory"

5. What is the significance of mission cards in Risk?
 - a) They provide bonus reinforcements to players.
 - b) They determine the turn order for the game.
 - c) They offer specific objectives for players to complete.
 - d) They serve as currency for trading with opponents.

