

Name _____

Navigating the Cloud: Challenges and Risks of Adoption

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one of the primary concerns when it comes to using the cloud?
 - a) Network speed
 - b) Data security
 - c) Hardware compatibility
 - d) Energy consumption

2. Why can complying with data privacy regulations be challenging for organizations using the cloud?
 - a) All cloud providers offer the same level of data privacy.
 - b) Data privacy laws are the same worldwide.
 - c) Regulations vary between regions.
 - d) Data privacy is not a concern in cloud computing.

3. What is one of the risks associated with cloud adoption related to data?
 - a) Data backup and redundancy
 - b) Data security
 - c) Data migration ease
 - d) Data availability

4. What does the term "vendor lock-in" mean in the context of cloud computing?
 - a) The ability to easily migrate data and services to another provider
 - b) Being tied to a specific cloud provider's services and finding it difficult to switch
 - c) A cloud provider's high-quality customer service
 - d) The process of choosing a cloud provider

5. Why is cost management an important consideration when using cloud services?
 - a) Cloud services are always free.
 - b) Cloud costs are fixed and predictable.
 - c) Inefficient resource management can lead to unexpected expenses.
 - d) Cloud providers don't charge for downtime.

