

Name _____

Rivals United: A Nation's Challenge

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Who were the two lifelong political rivals in Harmonyville?
 - A. Governor Sarah Parker and Senator Jane Smith
 - B. Senator John Anderson and Governor Sarah Parker
 - C. Senator John Anderson and Senator Sarah Parker
 - D. Governor Sarah Anderson and Senator John Parker

2. What sparked the crisis in Harmonyville?
 - A. A severe drought
 - B. A sudden economic downturn
 - C. A political scandal
 - D. A food shortage

3. How did Senator Anderson and Governor Parker differ in their approaches to solving the economic crisis?
 - A. Both favored tax cuts and deregulation
 - B. Anderson favored government intervention and stimulus measures, while Parker leaned towards tax cuts and deregulation.
 - C. Both favored government intervention and stimulus measures.
 - D. Both leaned towards tax cuts and deregulation.

4. What unexpected outcome occurred as a result of Anderson and Parker's collaboration?
 - A. Their long-standing animosity deepened
 - B. Traditional political lines became more defined
 - C. New coalitions formed among their supporters
 - D. Public opinion turned against them

5. What additional challenge did Anderson and Parker face during the crisis?
 - A. A severe drought
 - B. A devastating hurricane
 - C. A terrorist attack
 - D. A military coup

