

Name _____

River Escape

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does the river symbolize in the novel?
 - a) Danger and chaos
 - b) Peace and freedom
 - c) The power of society
 - d) A place where Huck feels trapped

2. How is life different for Huck and Jim on the river compared to the shore?
 - a) On the river, they are free; on land, they face problems.
 - b) The river is dangerous, and the land is always safe.
 - c) On the river, they follow strict rules; on land, they do whatever they want.
 - d) The river is boring, but life on land is exciting.

3. Why does Huck feel safe on the river?
 - a) Because it is quiet and peaceful
 - b) Because there are no other people to judge him
 - c) Because he does not have to follow society's rules
 - d) All of the above

4. What lesson does Twain want readers to learn about life on the shore?
 - a) That civilization is always better than the wild
 - b) That people on land are always kind and fair
 - c) That society has problems like greed and hypocrisy
 - d) That Huck and Jim should never leave the land

5. Why is the feud between the Grangerfords and the Shepherdsons an example of hypocrisy?
 - a) Because they fight even though they go to church and say they believe in peace
 - b) Because they never fight and only argue
 - c) Because they are actually best friends
 - d) Because they only pretend to be enemies

