

Name _____

Grandma Joined a Rock Band

Short Answer Questions Answers

1. Before joining the rock band, Grandma had silver hair neatly tucked into a bun. She was known for her traditional activities like baking apple pies and knitting.
2. The family supported Grandma's aspiration by helping her pick out a wardrobe with leather jackets and band t-shirts. Grandpa offered to be the band's manager. Other family members assisted with logistics and promotion.
3. Grandma's love for rock music influenced her community by making her an overnight sensation known as the "Rocking Grandma." Her performances brought joy, laughter, and a sense of unity to the people around her.
4. Grandma's story teaches us that pursuing our dreams is important, regardless of our age. It reminds us that it's never too late to explore new interests and embrace our passions, bringing happiness and inspiration to our lives and those around us.
5. The humor in the story is derived from the unexpected contrast between Grandma's traditional image and her transformation into a rock star. Her comical dance moves and newfound enthusiasm for rock music bring laughter and joy to her family and community.

