

Name _____

The Day the Teachers Became Rock Stars

Open Ended Questions

1. Imagine you were a student at Maplewood Middle School on the day the teachers became rock stars. How would you describe your emotions and the overall atmosphere in the school?
2. If you had the chance to transform into a rock star for a day, what instrument would you want to play, and what type of music would you perform? Why?
3. How do you think events like "The Educators of Rock" day can create stronger bonds between students and teachers in a school?
4. What message do you think this story conveys about the importance of seeing teachers as individuals with unique talents and interests outside the classroom?

