

Name _____

The Diary of Anne Frank: Exploring the Roles of its Characters

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Analyze the character of Anne Frank and her role as the author of the diary. How does her writing reflect her personality, dreams, and resilience during their time in hiding?
2. Discuss the importance of Miep and Jan Gies as characters who provide support to the annex residents. How do their actions embody courage and compassion during a challenging period in history?
3. Explore the theme of family dynamics within the annex. How do the relationships between family members, such as the Franks and the Van Daans, evolve in confinement, and what tensions arise?
4. Reflect on the character development of Peter Van Daan (Peter) and his relationship with Anne. How do their interactions reveal their emotional growth and their ability to find solace in each other's company?

