

Name _____

The Diary of Anne Frank: Exploring the Roles of its Characters

Short Answer Key

1. Otto Frank (Mr. Frank) provides guidance and stability in the annex. He fulfills Anne's dream of becoming a writer by publishing her diary after the war, ensuring her legacy.
2. The relationship between Anne and Margot Frank evolves from typical sibling rivalry to a close bond during their time in hiding, providing emotional support to each other.
3. Miep and Jan Gies face risks and challenges as they help the annex residents by providing essential supplies and news from the outside world. Their assistance is crucial for the residents' survival.
4. Peter Van Daan (Peter) initially comes across as shy but forms a close friendship with Anne, providing emotional support and companionship.
5. Mrs. Van Daan and Mr. Van Daan have complex characters, with Mrs. Van Daan often clashing with Anne and Mr. Van Daan contributing to the dynamics within the annex.

