

Name _____

The Diary of Anne Frank: Exploring the Roles of its Characters

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Anne Frank's character is portrayed through her writing, reflecting her vibrant personality, dreams of becoming a writer, and unwavering resilience. Her diary captures her optimism, curiosity, and inner strength during their time in hiding.
2. Miep and Jan Gies represent courage and compassion as they risk their lives to support the annex residents. Their actions demonstrate the capacity for kindness and hope during challenging times.
3. Family dynamics within the annex are complex, with tensions arising from confinement. However, these relationships also evolve, highlighting the importance of family bonds even in adversity.
4. Peter Van Daan's character development is evident in his growing friendship with Anne, revealing their emotional growth and their ability to find solace in each other's company during their challenging confinement.

