

Name _____

Rule Breaker

Short Answer Key

1. The siblings feel uneasy because the Cat's actions cause a mess, and they worry about what their mother will think when she comes home.
2. The Cat in the Hat challenges the idea of following rules by creating chaos and encouraging the siblings to break their usual habits.
3. The story suggests that while it's important to have fun, it's equally important to think about the consequences of your actions and take responsibility.
4. The Cat helps clean up the mess by using a machine that quickly restores the house to its original state.
5. The siblings' mother represents authority and rules, making her return a source of tension and a reason for the siblings to feel responsible.

