

Name _____

Rumpelstiltskin

Short Answer Key

1. The King demanded that Lisa spin even more straw into gold, promising her riches and threatening her with death if she failed.
2. Lisa's servant overheard the little man singing his name in the woods, which is how Lisa discovered it.
3. The little man asked for Lisa's firstborn child in exchange for helping her spin straw into gold.
4. Lisa learned the lesson of the consequences of making promises without thinking them through, as she had to deal with the challenge of giving up her firstborn child due to a hasty promise.
5. In his anger, he stomped his foot so hard that he created a hole in the ground and disappeared.

