

Name _____

Sacred Structures

Multiple Choice

1. Which type of religious building is central to the practice of Islam?
 - a) Temples
 - b) Churches
 - c) Mosques
 - d) Synagogues

2. What is the function of a mihrab in a mosque?
 - a) To call for prayer
 - b) To indicate the direction of Mecca
 - c) To store religious texts
 - d) To hold sacred statues

3. Which religious building is characterized by its inclusion of an ark and a bimah?
 - a) Temples
 - b) Churches
 - c) Mosques
 - d) Synagogues

4. What is the primary purpose of gurdwaras in Sikhism?
 - a) To house statues of deities
 - b) To store the Guru Granth Sahib
 - c) To host social gatherings
 - d) To perform rituals

5. Which step in the construction of religious buildings involves the consecration or dedication of the building for religious use?
 - a) Design and planning
 - b) Site selection
 - c) Architectural elements
 - d) Consecration

