

Name _____

Sacred Structures

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine you are an architect tasked with designing a new religious building for a community. Describe the key design elements and features you would incorporate to create a welcoming and sacred space for worship and reflection.
2. Discuss the similarities and differences between the architectural elements of a temple and a mosque, highlighting their cultural and religious significance.
3. Explain the significance of religious symbols and artwork in the decoration of religious buildings, and provide examples from different religious traditions.
4. How do religious buildings contribute to the cultural identity and spiritual life of communities? Provide examples of how these buildings are used for various religious and community events.

