

Name _____

Salem's Fear

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. I would try to speak up, but I would also be scared because people who questioned the trials were punished.
2. They were taught to fear witches by their religion and leaders, so they believed without question.
3. Today, fear can still lead to unfair treatment when people believe rumors or judge others without evidence.
4. We can prevent situations like this by making sure people ask questions, demand evidence, and stand up for fairness.

