

Name _____

The Samurai Stand-Up Showdown

Short Answer Key

1. Hiroshi Hara was known for quick wit and clever wordplay, while Kenji Jin excelled in slapstick comedy and funny faces.
2. The two clans arrived at the Comedy Castle on the same night to prove which clan had the best stand-up comedy act.
3. Hiroshi's style of comedy involved delivering puns and witty one-liners.
4. Kenji entertained the audience with slapstick humor, including pratfalls, funny voices, and exaggerated gestures.
5. At the end of their competition, Hiroshi and Kenji decided to put their differences aside and performed a hilarious duet that brought the audience together in laughter.

