

Name _____

Healthy Cities: How Urban Planners Tackle Public Health and Sanitation

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one of the fundamental needs that urban planners focus on to ensure public health?

- a) Access to clean and safe drinking water
- b) Access to fast internet
- c) Access to shopping malls
- d) Access to amusement parks

2. What is the purpose of sewage systems designed by urban planners?

- a) To transport clean water to households
- b) To collect and treat wastewater and sewage
- c) To generate electricity
- d) To promote public transportation

3. What is the role of urban planners in waste management?

- a) Designing waste collection routes
- b) Operating recycling centers
- c) Treating wastewater
- d) Building skyscrapers

4. How do green spaces and recreational areas designed by urban planners contribute to public health?

- a) They provide spaces for people to exercise and relax.
- b) They generate income for the city.
- c) They reduce access to healthcare facilities.
- d) They increase air pollution.

5. What is the purpose of public transportation systems in urban planning?

- a) To promote the use of cars
- b) To reduce air pollution and encourage a healthier lifestyle
- c) To increase traffic congestion
- d) To build more highways

