

Name _____

Friendship and Dreams: Scene 3 of 'Of Mice and Men'

Short Answer Key

1. Candy offers to contribute his life savings to George and Lennie's dream of owning land because he wants to have a sense of belonging and purpose. He is eager to escape the isolation and monotony of ranch life.
2. Slim stands out from the other ranch workers due to his wisdom, empathy, and authority. He is respected for his calm demeanor and his ability to understand people and situations.
3. The characters' shared dreams symbolize their desire for a better life and a sense of security. In a harsh environment, these dreams provide hope and motivation.
4. The characters in the bunkhouse experience loneliness and a lack of meaningful connections. Their discussions in Scene 3 contrast with their daily lives, where they often endure isolation and hardship.
5. Scene 3 contributes to the theme of friendship by showing how George, Lennie, Candy, and Slim bond over their shared dreams and aspirations.

