Closure and Reflection: Scene 6 of 'Of Mice and Men'

Short Answer Key

1. George experiences immense emotional turmoil in Scene 6 as he grapples with the decision to protect Lennie from further suffering. He feels a profound sense of guilt and heartbreak, knowing that he must make a difficult choice.
2. Slim's character offers support and understanding to George by not passing judgment and by acknowledging the love and friendship between George and Lennie. This support is crucial in helping George cope with his decision.
3. Scene 6 reflects themes of friendship, responsibility, and the harsh realities of the world during the Great Depression. These themes relate to the novella's overall message about the challenges of pursuing dreams in a challenging and unforgiving environment.
4. The title "Of Mice and Men" is drawn from a line in a poem by Robert Burns, which suggests that even the best-laid plans of mice and men often go awry. In Scene 6, this title takes on deeper meaning as it highlights the fragility of dreams and the unpredictability of life.
5. George's choices in Scene 6 demonstrate the complexity of his character. He must balance his responsibility for Lennie's well-being with his own desire for companionship and a better life.
