

Name _____

Guiding Stars: A Day in the Life of a School Counselor

Short Answer Key

1. The primary responsibility of a School Counselor is to assist students with their academic, social, and emotional well-being.
2. One important skill that School Counselors need to have is empathy.
3. A School Counselor might facilitate career guidance workshops for older students in the afternoon.
4. Problem-solving skills are important for School Counselors because they help students find solutions to challenges.
5. School Counselors contribute to the emotional well-being of students by providing counseling, support, and guidance.

