

Name _____

The Great Middle School Rebellion

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was the initial act of rebellion by Sarah and her friends?
 - A) Organizing a silent protest
 - B) Wearing mismatched socks
 - C) Starting a gum parade
 - D) Writing limericks about the lunch menu

2. How did the "Silent Laughter Protest" impact the school?
 - A) It made everyone laugh loudly.
 - B) It resulted in a serious discussion about school rules.
 - C) It led to more strict rules.
 - D) It brought humor to the school and conveyed a message.

3. What did The Mismatched Sock Crew do during the "Lunchtime Limerick Challenge"?
 - A) Organized a parade outside the school
 - B) Wrote poems about their favorite books
 - C) Performed limericks about the school's lunch menu
 - D) Protested against the school's dress code

4. What did the "Gum Parade" challenge at Maplewood Middle School?
 - A) The ban on school dances
 - B) The "No Hat" rule
 - C) The "No Gum" rule
 - D) The rule about wearing uniforms

5. What was the outcome of the meeting between The Mismatched Sock Crew and Mr. Johnson?
 - A) Mr. Johnson praised their rule-breaking spirit.
 - B) The students were suspended from school.
 - C) Some school rules were revised.
 - D) The students were given awards for their creativity.

