

Name _____

The Great Middle School Rebellion

Short Answer Key

1. Possible Answer: The purpose was to challenge the school's strict rules while using humor and spreading a message that laughter should be allowed.
2. Possible Answer: They wrote and performed silly limericks about the school's lunch menu to make it more fun and entertaining.
3. Possible Answer: They organized a "Gum Parade" during recess, marching around and offering gum to everyone, including the teachers, as a way to challenge the rule.
4. Possible Answer: Mr. Johnson decided to revise some of the school rules, including the sock-matching rule and the no-gum policy, after realizing the students' efforts were aimed at bringing positivity and humor to the school.
5. Possible Answer: The school became a more fun and inclusive place as other students embraced the spirit of creativity and humor, thanks to The Mismatched Sock Crew's efforts to challenge absurd rules.

