

Name _____

The Great Middle School Rebellion

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Possible Answer: The Mismatched Sock Crew chose humor as a way to challenge the rules because it allowed them to convey their message without being confrontational. Humor made their actions more approachable and helped spread positivity.
2. Possible Answer: The Mismatched Sock Crew's actions led to positive change by prompting the school principal to revise some of the outdated and ridiculous rules. This made the school a more enjoyable and inclusive place for all students.
3. Possible Answer: Some possible answers could include organizing talent shows, art exhibitions, or charity events, starting a kindness club, or creating a school newsletter filled with humor and positive stories.
4. Possible Answer: Using humor and creativity can make it easier to approach serious issues or rules, as it can soften resistance and make people more open to change. It also spreads positivity and brings people together in a fun way.

