

Name _____

Emma's Scientific Adventures

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Why do you think Emma is described as "so keen" in the poem? What might this suggest about her dedication to science?
2. Imagine you are helping Emma in her lab. Describe one of the exciting experiments you might conduct together.
3. How might Emma's scientific discoveries benefit society or the world?
4. Why is it important for young scientists like Emma to explore and unlock secrets through their experiments?