

Name _____

Baseball's Run Scoring System: The Art of Crossing Home Plate

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine you are a base runner on first base with no outs. Describe the different ways you might be able to score a run during the course of a single play.
2. Discuss the importance of teamwork and communication among players when it comes to scoring runs in baseball.
3. Can you think of any strategies that a defensive team might use to prevent a runner from scoring when they are on third base with fewer than two outs?
4. Share your thoughts on why baseball's scoring system is both simple and complex, requiring players to make split-second decisions based on various factors.

