

Name _____

Adventure in the Enchanted Scottish Highlands

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The Scottish Highlands have a lush green landscape with rolling hills covered in heather and thistles. There are also towering mountains and rugged cliffs in some areas.
2. The travelers learned about the infamous massacre of 1692, which was a tragic event in the Glencoe Valley's history.
3. The travelers felt like they were part of the Highland community and enjoyed the lively Scottish folk dance, clapping, stomping, and twirling around. They felt happy and connected to the local culture.
4. The travelers found the Fairy Pools enchanting because they are crystal-clear blue pools fed by waterfalls, and legends say that fairies reside there. The place had an ethereal beauty that left them feeling like they had entered another world.

