

Name _____

The Scream of Existence

Short Answer Key

1. The predominant color of the sky in the painting is shades of red.
2. The landscape is described as twisted and in pain, symbolizing the chaotic and unsettling nature of existence.
3. The figure's expression conveys existential dread and anguish.
4. The poem describes the figure's scream as a silent scream that pierces the air.
5. The poem suggests that the scream of existence is a universal theme portrayed in Edvard Munch's art.

