

Name _____

The Fourth Amendment: Your Shield Against Unreasonable Searches and Seizures

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. In your own words, explain why individual privacy is a fundamental aspect protected by the Fourth Amendment.
2. Provide an example scenario where a search or seizure without a warrant may be justified under the Fourth Amendment.
3. Discuss the potential challenges law enforcement faces in balancing the need to protect public safety and respecting Fourth Amendment rights.
4. How does the Fourth Amendment contribute to a system of checks and balances in the United States?

