

Name _____

The Principal's Whimsical Secret Hobby

Short Answer Key

1. Principal Henderson had tap dancing, magic, and puppetry as hobbies or talents.
2. Sally, Tom, and Emily organized a talent show and surprised him with an invitation to perform.
3. The students and staff reacted to Principal Henderson's tap dance performance with a standing ovation, applause, and cheers.
4. Principal Henderson wanted to convey the message that people should embrace their hidden talents and not be afraid to share them with others.
5. Principal Henderson's performance at the talent show changed the perception of him among the school community by revealing his fun and creative side, making him more relatable and approachable.

