

Name _____

Seeing Red

Short Answer Key

1. Jonas was the Receiver of Memory, which gave him the ability to see beyond what others could.
2. He realized that without color, life was dull and lacked beauty, just like emotions had been removed from people's lives.
3. The community believed that removing colors, emotions, and strong feelings would prevent conflict and pain.
4. The war memory showed Jonas that pain and suffering were part of human history, something his community had erased.
5. The color red symbolized Jonas's awakening, showing him that life should be filled with feelings, choices, and experiences.
