

Name _____

Self Expression

Short Answer Key

1. Lily conveyed a message of self-expression, unity, and the importance of standing up for one's beliefs during her valedictorian speech.
2. The school administration and Principal Wilson initially resisted the rebellion but eventually reached a compromise, leading to a revised dress code.
3. The Dress Loud and Proud rebellion brought about positive changes such as increased self-expression, a sense of unity among students, and a more vibrant and accepting school environment.
4. After high school, Lily received a scholarship for fashion design, Chloe started her own clothing line, and Max formed a punk rock band, all pursuing their passions and individuality.
5. The school dedicated a mural in honor of the rebellion, depicting the key moments of the movement.

