

Name _____

Revolutionary Mischief: The Servant and the Master

Multiple Choice Questions

1. During which historical period does the story take place?
 - a) The Renaissance
 - b) The Middle Ages
 - c) The French Revolution
 - d) The Industrial Revolution

2. How would you describe Monsieur Jacques' personality at the beginning of the story?
 - a) Sharp-witted and resourceful
 - b) Kind but oblivious
 - c) Adventurous and daring
 - d) Cruel and ruthless

3. What audacious idea does Sophie suggest to Monsieur Jacques when they hear the revolutionaries approaching?
 - a) They should hide in the chateau.
 - b) They should join the revolutionaries.
 - c) They should disguise themselves as nobles.
 - d) They should run away to a different country.

4. How does Sophie help them avoid trouble while mingling with the revolutionaries?
 - a) She confronts the mob with bravery.
 - b) She uses her wit and quick thinking.
 - c) She hides in the shadows.
 - d) She betrays Monsieur Jacques to save herself.

5. What is the ultimate message of the story?
 - a) Loyalty and friendship can endure even in the darkest of times.
 - b) The French Revolution was a time of peace and prosperity.
 - c) Servants should always follow their masters' orders.
 - d) Bumbling aristocrats like Monsieur Jacques are the real heroes.

