

Name _____

The Creative World of Set Design

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary role of a Set Designer?
 - a) Directing actors on stage
 - b) Designing the physical surroundings of a production
 - c) Writing the script for a play
 - d) Operating lighting and sound equipment

2. What kind of education do many set designers pursue?
 - a) Medical degree
 - b) Bachelor's degree in theater or fine arts
 - c) Engineering degree
 - d) Culinary arts diploma

3. Which of the following skills is crucial for a set designer?
 - a) Cooking skills
 - b) Attention to detail
 - c) Athletic abilities
 - d) Gardening expertise

4. What is the purpose of creating physical scale models in set design?
 - a) To serve as decorations on the set
 - b) To provide a three-dimensional representation of the set design
 - c) To be used as costumes for actors
 - d) To serve as props in a production

5. Why is collaboration important for set designers?
 - a) To compete with other designers
 - b) To ensure the set aligns with the overall vision of the production
 - c) To work independently without input from others
 - d) To keep their designs a secret from the production team

