

Name _____

Survival on a Deserted Island: Analyzing the Setting of 'Lord of the Flies'

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What initially makes the deserted island in "Lord of the Flies" seem like a paradise?

- a) The presence of wild animals
- b) The dense forest
- c) The sandy beaches and lush vegetation
- d) The abundance of food

2. How does the isolation of the island affect the boys' perception of their situation?

- a) They feel safer and more secure.
- b) They believe they can establish their own rules and civilization.
- c) They become homesick and want to leave immediately.
- d) They lose hope of ever being rescued.

3. What does the dense forest on the island represent in the story?

- a) Safety and shelter
- b) Adventure and exploration
- c) The unknown and fear
- d) A source of food

4. Where is the conch shell found, and what does it symbolize?

- a) It is found in the forest and symbolizes chaos.
- b) It is found on the mountain and symbolizes power.
- c) It is found on the beach and symbolizes authority and order.
- d) It is found in a cave and symbolizes danger.

5. How does the mountain become a significant location on the island?

- a) It is a source of fresh water.
- b) It houses the boys' shelter.
- c) It is the location of the mysterious "beast."
- d) It becomes a battleground between Ralph and Jack.

