

Name _____

The Haunting of Shadowbrook Manor

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Sarah wanted to explore the mansion to test her courage and uncover its mysterious history.
2. Shadowbrook Manor had a decrepit facade, creaking floorboards, and eerie darkness. The atmosphere was chilly and filled with ghostly apparitions and unsettling whispers.
3. The group learned that curiosity can lead to dangerous situations, and it's important to exercise caution when exploring unknown and potentially haunted places.
4. The group of friends likely felt a combination of relief and terror after escaping the mansion. They chose not to speak of their experience because the memories haunted their dreams and served as a constant reminder of the darkness within the mansion, which was a traumatic and terrifying experience for them.

