

Name _____

The Shadowed Mirror

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. What do you think motivated Sarah to touch the mirror, despite its ominous appearance and the warnings of others?
2. How did the mirror's nightmarish dimension affect Sarah and her companions, both physically and emotionally?
3. What do you think the story conveys about the dangers of seeking power and knowledge without considering the consequences?
4. How might Sarah and her companions be changed by their ordeal in the shadowed dimension, and what lessons might they carry with them?

