

Name _____

Shifting Perspectives

Short Answer Key

1. Jonas first believed his community was perfect, but after receiving memories, he realized it lacked true emotions, choices, and individuality.
2. One happy memory was sledding down a snowy hill and feeling the warmth of the sun.
3. Gabriel was in danger because he was going to be "released." Jonas took him and ran away to save him.
4. The community removed emotions to prevent pain, but this also took away love, happiness, and real relationships.
5. Jonas faced risks like hunger, cold, and the fear of being caught as he searched for a new life.

