

Name _____

The Principal's Surprise Talent Show Act

Short Answer Key

1. The students reacted with gasps and cheers when they first heard about Principal Johnson's participation in the talent show.
2. Principal Johnson impressed the audience with smooth breakdancing moves, intricate footwork, head spins, and finishing with a spectacular backflip.
3. After his breakdancing act, the students' perception of Principal Johnson changed to one of increased respect and admiration.
4. Principal Johnson's participation in the talent show had a significant impact on the students and the school community because it showed that even authority figures could embrace new experiences, take risks, and connect with them in fun and unexpected ways.
5. The students learned that it's important to step out of their comfort zones and share their unique talents with the world, which shaped their perspective on taking risks and embracing new experiences.

