

Name _____

The Principal's Surprise Talent Show Act

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The students' perception of Principal Johnson changed to one of increased respect and admiration after his impressive breakdancing performance.
2. Principal Johnson's participation in the talent show had a significant impact because it showed that even authority figures could embrace new experiences, take risks, and connect with students in a fun and unexpected way.
3. The students learned the lesson that it's important to step out of their comfort zones and share their unique talents, shaping their perspective on embracing new opportunities and expressing themselves.
4. A memorable moment from the talent show was when Principal Johnson finished his breakdancing performance with a spectacular backflip, leading to a standing ovation and filling the auditorium with cheers and applause.

