

Name _____

Tiny Adventures with the Shrink-O-Matic

Short Answer Key

1. The kids created the "Shrink-O-Matic," and its purpose was to shrink objects and, accidentally, themselves.
2. Answers may vary, but they might feel excited, scared, or curious.
3. Some adventures the kids had in their miniature world include riding on ants, exploring the world of bugs, and helping a ladybug find her way home.
4. The kids returned to their normal size by pointing the Shrink-O-Matic at themselves and pressing the button.
5. Answers may vary but could include exploring a giant forest of colorful flowers or taking a ride on the back of a friendly butterfly because it would be a magical and beautiful experience.
