Sibling Rivalry

Short Answer Key

1. The rivalry between Emily and James was caused by their competition for their parents' affection and inheritance, as well as their differing personalities and life choices.
2. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson intended to divide their wealth equally between Emily and James, with the twist that the siblings would have to work together to manage the family's charitable foundation.
3. Emily was a perfectionist with a successful career as a lawyer, while James was a carefree artist who traveled the world seeking inspiration.
4. As they worked together, Emily and James began to appreciate each other's strengths and support each other's dreams, leading to a closer and more cooperative relationship.
5. The ultimate lesson the family learned was the value of cooperation, family bonds, and the importance of putting aside differences to work together towards a common goal.
