

Name _____

Silent Struggles: Understanding Why Some Kids Don't Tell Adults About Bullying

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one common reason why some kids don't tell adults about bullying?
 - a) They enjoy being bullied and don't want it to stop.
 - b) They fear retaliation from the bullies.
 - c) They want to gain popularity among their peers.
 - d) They believe that reporting bullying is a sign of strength.

2. Why might some children feel ashamed and embarrassed about reporting bullying?
 - a) They think reporting bullying will make them stronger.
 - b) They fear that reporting will result in the bullies being punished.
 - c) They believe it will help them gain more friends.
 - d) They worry it will make them appear weak or inadequate.

3. What is the concern that some kids have about reporting bullying to adults within their peer groups?
 - a) They fear the adults won't take them seriously.
 - b) They worry about being labeled a "snitch" or "tattletale" by their peers.
 - c) They believe their parents will react negatively.
 - d) They think reporting bullying is the right thing to do.

4. How might a lack of trust in adults affect a child's decision to report bullying?
 - a) It encourages them to report bullying immediately.
 - b) It makes them feel confident that adults will handle the situation.
 - c) It may cause them to hesitate, as they doubt the effectiveness of intervention.
 - d) It helps them build strong relationships with their teachers.

5. What is the misconception that may prevent some kids from reporting bullying?
 - a) They believe that bullying is a normal part of growing up.
 - b) They think that only adults can stop bullying.
 - c) They believe that reporting bullying is unnecessary.
 - d) They believe that bullies will stop on their own.

