

Name _____

Silent Struggles: Understanding Why Some Kids Don't Tell Adults About Bullying

Short Answer

1. Explain the concept of "fear of retaliation" as a reason why some kids don't tell adults about bullying.
2. How might peer pressure play a role in a child's decision not to report bullying to adults?
3. What can schools and parents do to create a safe and trusting environment where children are more likely to report bullying?
4. Describe the potential consequences of a child not reporting bullying and choosing to endure it silently.
5. Share a personal experience or observation related to a child's decision not to report bullying. Discuss the outcome of that decision and its impact.

