

Name _____

Silent Struggles: Understanding Why Some Kids Don't Tell Adults About Bullying

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Reflect on the importance of breaking the silence surrounding bullying and encouraging children to report it. Discuss the potential benefits of addressing bullying promptly and effectively.
2. Imagine you are a school counselor tasked with helping children overcome their hesitations to report bullying. Outline a plan for organizing workshops or activities that promote open communication and trust among students.
3. In your opinion, what role do peers play in either encouraging or discouraging children from reporting bullying? Provide examples of how peer support can make a difference in addressing bullying.
4. Consider a scenario where a child finally decides to report bullying to an adult. Discuss the appropriate steps and support measures that adults should take to address the situation and ensure the child's well-being.

