

Name _____

The Silly Mermaid

Open Ended Questions Answers

1. Marina enjoyed making her underwater friends laugh because it brought happiness and laughter to the underwater world, and she loved the feeling of making others happy.
2. Marina's friendship with Oliver changed her life by adding a new, shy but wonderful friend to her circle, and it showed her the power of laughter and friendship.
3. Marina's message during her performance at the grand celebration may have been that it's important to be true to oneself and that being silly and making people laugh is a valuable and joyful thing.
4. Marina was happier being known as the silliest mermaid because she cherished making her friends laugh and having fun, and she valued the bond of friendship more than being the most graceful.

