

Name _____

Singing Wisdom

Short Answer Key

1. The Oompa-Loompas teach lessons by singing songs that warn about bad behavior and its consequences.
2. Augustus Gloop's song teaches that being greedy and eating too much can lead to bad consequences.
3. The Oompa-Loompas make fun of Veruca Salt because she is spoiled and demands too much, showing that selfishness is not a good quality.
4. The main message of Mike Teavee's song is that watching too much TV can make a person lose their imagination and creativity.
5. Roald Dahl used songs because they are fun, easy to remember, and make the lessons more entertaining for readers.

