Name _____

Skipping Childhood

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Can you relate to the feeling of growing up too fast described in the poem? Share your thoughts or experiences.

2. How do you think the poem illustrates the idea that childhood should be cherished and valued for its simplicity and innocence?

3. What advice would you give to someone who feels pressured to grow up quickly, considering the themes explored in the poem?

4. How can individuals balance the responsibilities of adulthood with the need to preserve the joys and wonder of childhood, as suggested in the poem?

© ReadingDuck.com