

Name _____

Breaking Free: A Slam on Addiction

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main theme of the slam poem?
 - A. The joy of addiction
 - B. The darkness of addiction and the journey to recovery
 - C. The thrill of taking risks
 - D. The fun of breaking rules

2. How does the poem describe the narrator's experience with addiction?
 - A. The narrator never experienced addiction.
 - B. The narrator found it easy to overcome addiction.
 - C. The narrator struggled with addiction and found it difficult to break free.
 - D. The narrator enjoyed the grip of addiction.

3. What does the poem mention as the key to the narrator's recovery?
 - A. More addiction
 - B. Support and love
 - C. Isolation from others
 - D. Ignoring the problem

4. How does the poem describe the path to recovery?
 - A. As a smooth and easy journey
 - B. As a challenging but ultimately rewarding process
 - C. As a lonely and hopeless endeavor
 - D. As a quick and painless fix

5. What message does the poem convey to those who are struggling with addiction?
 - A. That addiction is a lifelong sentence
 - B. That they should give up and not seek help
 - C. That there is hope and support available to help them break free
 - D. That addiction is a fun and enjoyable experience

