

Name _____

How Does a Sloth Communicate?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do baby sloths call for their mothers?
 - A. By making high-pitched squeaks
 - B. By tapping on tree branches
 - C. By changing the color of their fur
 - D. By waving their claws

2. What do sloths use scent glands for?
 - A. To protect themselves from predators
 - B. To leave messages on trees
 - C. To attract algae to their fur
 - D. To find food

3. How do sloths show aggression?
 - A. By growling loudly
 - B. By running away
 - C. By making high-pitched calls
 - D. By swiping their claws

4. What helps sloths blend into the trees?
 - A. Algae growing on their fur
 - B. Their fast movements
 - C. Their ability to change color
 - D. Their loud calls

5. Why do sloths interact with birds and insects?
 - A. They hunt them for food
 - B. They use them to protect themselves
 - C. Birds and insects live on their fur and pick up cues from their behavior
 - D. They form groups to scare off predators

